

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Preserving South Dakota's trees and forests for future generations is an important effort that would not be possible without dedicated, skilled public servants; and,

Whereas, Steve Hasenohrl has dedicated 40 years to protecting our trees and forests while working for the US Forest Service and South Dakota Department of Agriculture Wildland Fire Division; and,

Whereas, Steve volunteered his expertise for an incredible 34 years as a member of the Rapid City Urban Forestry Board, including ten years as president, advising the city council and educating the public about tree conservation; and,

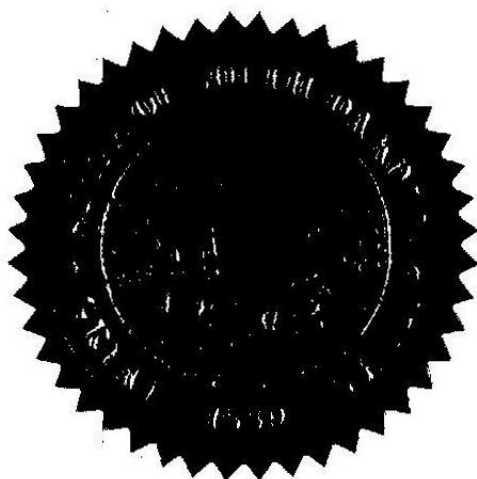

Whereas, South Dakota continues to have beautiful forests where our citizens can live, work, and enjoy recreation safely thanks in part to Steve's tremendous public service; and,

Whereas, Steve has retired from the Urban Forestry Board and it is only fitting that such a distinguished conservationist be recognized at Rapid City's Arbor Day celebration:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 24, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends, in wishing him well and thanking him for his service to Rapid City and the state of South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
